

The library's circulation records and any other records which identify and relate the name of library users with specific materials are confidential. Such records will not be released or used for non-library purposes except pursuant to a subpoena from a court of law. The following is the text of New York State Law CPLR, Article 45, Section 4509: Library Records, which contain names or other personally identifying details regarding the users of public, free association, school, college and university libraries and library systems of this state, including but not limited to records related to the circulation of library materials, computer database searches, interlibrary loan transactions, reference queries, requests for photocopies of library materials, title reserve requests, or the use of audio-visual materials, films or records, shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed except that such records may be disclosed to the extent necessary for the proper operation of such library and shall be disclosed upon request or consent of the user or pursuant to subpoena, court order or where otherwise required by statute.
